Dearest mother,

Friday the 13th and nothing terribly disastrous has happened yet. I had an awfully nice time tonight up at Severance hall for dinner with Martha Hall.
The rooms are so lovely that I should think it would be heaven to live there. Here's hoping I'm lucky in drawing a number this spring.

I found out that one of the girls who was suspended for the year was Marian Breaks of Cranfordville. She went to Sudor at same time as Torts, I think.

She and 3 other girls had something to drink while they were out on dates. Another one was a Sudor girl from Indianapolis whose name I have forgotten. I met Marian coming out on the train, & liked her about the best of all. I was awfully sorry she was picked out.

There is a lot of dissatisfaction here at college. The main topic of conversation before classes and at meals seems to be on the faults of the institution. Several girls did not come back after Xmas and three or four others are transferring at midyears. I came back after Xmas with the determination to make myself fit in, for it is a wonderful place. It has worked marvels, and I find I am making friends everywhere and enjoying my lessons much more.

I ought to make B's in Latin, + French, a possible A in Greek, B or A in Hygiene, C's in Zo. and Math unless I come off with flying colors in the exams. Don't be disappointed, for it has taken a long time to get hold of things, and even a passing mark means something here.

I went to chapel this morning + heard Maude Royden, noted Englishwoman, and graduate of Oxford. She was quite good. I have heard that she spoke to overcrowded houses in New York and Boston. Several W. C. T. U. organizations cancelled their engagements with her because they heard she enjoyed an occasional cigarette.

This has been an unusually busy week-end because of a couple of French papers I'm working on. I sometimes wish I had never taken the course.

I wrote Mrs. Poston yesterday and sent birthday cards to Bertha & Evelyn. I'll mail them along with this when I get money for stamps.

Would you send plasticene & a ruler in my next laundry case? and either send or give me the name of those Battle Creek crackers you sent me last year for constipation.

I thought I was cured, but it seems not.

I have a little present for you ~~in~~ & will send it in next case.
How did you like the cook book?
I'm sorry it got smeared before it was dry. I'll fix it up later.

Will you have Mrs. Way look over my clothes that need mending? Some are in pretty bad shape. I hope the dresses I sent will come back soon, for I certainly miss them.

Just five months from today till vacation! Not so bad.

May the time go quickly!

Write often.

With much love,
Y^r vac
